WHILE THE CITY SLEEPS.

Edward Rose's tribute to the police force, "While the City Sleeps," was presented at the Oliver theater Sunday in afternoon and evening performances to good houses. It was a melodrama from the rising of the first curtain until the end of the last act, but it pleased the audiences.

The play deals with the experiences of one Patrolman Dan Nolan, a member of a middle-west large city police force. Influence of graft and scheming politicians completely rules his department with the exception of himself. "A man higher up" in the New York police department is scheming to get possession of Meta Matlow, a beautiful Russian Jew of the peasant class. Nolan, a new recruit, and Eileen Coleman, daughter of John Coleman, chief of the department, fight Danby, representative of the New York power, for possession of the girl, who is anxious to meet her lover, Isaac Havitch, a shoeing peddler.

The girl is placed in the arms of her waiting lover. Nolan escapes the clutches of the whispering squad and is promoted to the rank of sergeant. He wins Eileen and the play ends happily for all concerned. The cast was well balanced and the play pleased both audiences.

"ZUDORA."

The second complete story of the "Zudora" series is the feature at the Auditorium today. This new series of stories started out with great success last Monday and they promise to be equally as popular as the first.

"The Million Dollar Mystery" which ran for so many Mondays. However, "Zudora" is a complete story in itself, each time and in that way differs from "The Mystery" or "The Perils of Pauline."

Other pictures for today are a two-part Vitaphone entitled "Mary Jane Entertains" with Flora Finch, Hughie Mack and Cissy Fitzgerald in the cast; "Bunny" with John Bunny, Flora Finch and Josie Sadler; and "A Moment of Madness," an Edison drama. In spite of all her efforts to win him, Alvidge spurns Inez's advances. His lover, Rita, Inez's chum, is apparent. This causes Inez while in a jealous rage to try and take Rita's life. When her plans miscarry, she herself dies as she had planned for her rival.

Tomorrow's bill will include "What Could She Do," a three part Edison with Gertrude McCoy and Bigelow Cooper; "The Daddy of Them All," a Lubin comedy with John Bunny and Ruth Stonehouse; and "Lillian Drew; and the Selig weekly of current news and "The Fable Proving That Spencers are Found in Drug Stores," by George Ade.

JOHN BUNNY.

You have often seen that rollicking John Bunny and his millions of people daily have looked upon that smiling round face of America's known comedian. At the Oliver Thursday evening you will have the first opportunity of seeing John Bunny in the flesh and blood. He is coming with 50 of the cleverest fun makers, singers and dancers that the management was able to put together for the John Bunny world tour in the musical mixture "Bunny in Funland."

Just think of it: Bunny will act, sing and dance and will be just as funny on the regular stage as he was in the movies. John Bunny was a clever comedian before he went into the movies. The latter, however, gave him an opportunity to play many parts and a good chance to introduce himself in all quarters of the globe, at the same time drawing a handsome salary of $52,000 per year. The Vitaphone company has given the famous Bunny a temporary release to make this world's tour in person.

AT THE MAJESTIC.

A new nonsensical farce with song and dance trimmings is being staged at the Majestic under the title of "A Hurry-up Honeymoon." An unreasonable uncle requires friend niece to be married by midnight, otherwise his fortune of a million goes to his home for Friends' Cats. She has to hurry to find a man who will say "Yes" and stand still long enough for the nuptial knot to be tied by the required time. So many song numbers are introduced that the wedding is almost forgotten but they are of the pleasing sort that the Majestic audiences like. George Teats has "Camp Meeting" with the chorus assisting. Lora Lorraine presents "There'll Come a Time" in an original manner and Addie Burns scores with an Italian number. Others work willingly and frequently.

AT THE LASALLE.

One of those sweet interesting and always satisfying dramas of home life is shown on the Lasalle screen today in "That Wonderful Melody," a two reel subject filled with tears and smiles and the ending is delightful. An old violinist is estranged from his only daughter but her boy wins him back with his playing of a familiar melody. Mary Pickford, the highest salaried film star of today, will be seen in one of her former successes, "His Gratitude." The picture shows her at her best as a whimsical girl and explains this little big star's wonderful popularity. "Nipped" is a story of war with the Japs and in two thrilling reels tells what might happen if such an event should occur. A Keystone comedy with the favorite Patty cutting capers at a wine party. It bubbles over with fun.

AT THE ORPHEUM.

Today's program at the Orpheum brings the Florenz troupe of sensational acrobats. They have been featured with Ringling Bros. and Barnum and Bailey's circus for the past three seasons and are playing the Orpheum circuit of vaudeville houses for the first time. A parody on the old time melodrama "Curse You Jack Dalton" is said to be a laughable travesty on the lurid melodramas of recent years. McIntyre and Hart, known as the sugar plum girl and the marshmallow boy, promise a vaudeville surprise. Hines and Fox sing and talk in an original manner, and George Moore juggles humorously. A comical Keystone picture will complete the bill.

AT THE SURPRISE.

A two reel picture, "His Uncle's Will," is shown at the Surprise today. It concerns the eccentric uncle's demand that his nephew marry an unknown girl and after a series of adventures the young man unwittingly selects the girl chosen for him. Among other interesting incidents is his acting as a chauffeur for a young ladies' seminary with many laughable complications. "Seeds of Jealousy" teaches a lesson on how too hasty conclusions can be drawn from innocent circumstances and a baby's hands hold back an impetuous father.

AT THE COLONIAL.

Two new picture machines recently installed have vastly improved the projection of the photo plays at the Colonial and the securing of special three and four reel subjects in connection with several shorter stories, have brought the programs of this photo play house up to a high standard. "On Life's High Seas," is the title of the principal feature film today.

CHICAGO THEATERS.

AT THE GARRICK THEATER. With the 24th big week, Oliver Morosco's remarkable comedy succeeds. "Peg O' My Heart" completes the sixth solid month of its highly prosperous run at the Garrick theater and enters upon another lap of one of the most interesting long distance contests on the American stage this season.

This delightful play of youth, love and laughter now has to its credit over 225 performances on the Chicago stage and on Dec. 15 the 250th performance of the play will be given. This is the longest run of a non-musical play in the history of the Garrick theater and the longest run registered on any stage in America this year, while "Peg" has delighted Chicago audiences nearly twice as long as any other attraction on a Chicago stage.

Last season Oliver Morosco, the producer, carried away the season's record with 225 performances of "Help Wanted," and it is now safe to predict that this same California manager will take a second season's record with the run of "Peg O' My Heart," which in number of performances will unquestionably succeed that of "Help Wanted."

Peggy O'Neil and her associate players have now created nearly one-half of the record attained in New York by "Peg O' My Heart," and this fact is all the more remarkable when the conditions are taken into consideration, the New York run having been achieved during a highly prosperous theatrical year, while the Chicago run has been through the worst season in theatrical history.

That this quick and witty little Irish-American heroine will occupy the Garrick stage for several more weeks to come is indicated by the continued heavy demand for seats which has forced the management to continue the extra popular price matinee on Thursday, in addition to the matinees on Wednesday and Saturday.

KITTY MCKAY AT THE PRINCESS.

"Kitty McKay," the greatest comedy success of last year in New York, opened an indefinite engagement at the Princess theater in Chicago last Sunday night, and so great was the favor it met with on its first appearance, the indications are that it will remain for some time at the cozy Chicago playhouse, and become one of "the best sellers" of this season.

This is William Elliott's original production of Catherine Chisholm Cushing's mirthful romance, which was first presented in New York's Comedy theater at New Year's and the company is identically the same, and is headed by Molly McIntyre.

Mrs. Cushing's play is a refreshing interlude in the discordant world of sex-drama, plays of oppression and graft, and plays of the mad race for power. Metropolitan critics enthusiastically reviewing play and performance declared that "Kitty McKay" was nothing less than a new Cinderella, who brought to the stage all the charm and fancy of Cinderella of the fairy-tale in a new guise.

Kitty, a widow who is adopted by a narrow-minded and selfish Scotch family, grows to a beautiful and cheerful majority despite many blows, more curses and the lack of all the luxuries and most of the necessities of life. In this period of childhood—oppression, however, she achieves the practical and at moments pathetic philosophy which carries her through all her bitter years and stands her heart as well against the more insidious but equally certain evil influence of ostentatious prosperity.

Mrs. Cushing has evolved a suspended interest of the most absorbing nature in her treatment of this story. It is a love story which for sincerity and charm has few equals in modern drama.

CITY AND CHURCH HAVE SAME METHODS

Both Are Trying to Better Conditions of People Says Dr. J. A. McQuaid.

"The American City" was the subject that Dr. J. A. McQuaid, head of the National Purify League of New York city spoke on at the First Baptist church Sunday evening.

In part he said: "The American city and church are same in their business affairs. Where there is a city that is prosperous and faithful the church and its members are faithful also. The church has a passion for movements that bring about the works and ways of Christ. The prosperous city will undertake any enterprise that it believes to be advantageous to the people and a church will adopt any plans that will give rise to faith, charity or Godliness."

"The remedy of the church today is to make its members, as well as the people of the community, better acquainted with the works of God, to meditate with Christ, to commune with Him, to walk with, and last to die with Him."

"Paul said 'I die daily' meaning that as Christ died the sinners of the world might be saved he was trying to do his duty to the sinners."

English Beauty Tells Complexion Secrets

Through a fortunate meeting with an English lady, noted for her dazzling complexion, I received the full meaning of that old adage, "Beauty is but skin deep." She taught me how to remove my muddy old skin, revealing the young and beautiful skin beneath. The process is so simple, harmless and inexpensive. I'm sure you'll be glad to know about it. Just get an ounce of ordinary face cream, wash at any drugstore and apply nightly like cold cream, for a week or so. Every morning in washing off the wax, tiny particles of worn-out outside come off, too. The action is so gentle and gradual, there's no discomfort. It's a wonderful treatment, as it not only gets off the faded or discolored skin, but all of its defects, as pimples, roughness, freckles, pimples. I am indebted to the same lady for a remarkable wrinkle-removing formula. One ounce powdered saxolite is dissolved in a half pint witch-hazel and used as a face bath. This is so effective that just one application causes the finer lines to disappear, and soon even the deepest ones go.

GEORGIA MULES TO BE USED BY ALLIES

Check For Three and a Half Millions Is Sent to Southern Farmers.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Dec. 7.—A check for $3,500,000, virtually backed by the British government, was cleared last week through New Orleans to buy plain, long-eared Georgia mules for use by the British army in France and Belgium.

All the country around Atlanta, Augusta, Macon and Savannah is being drained of mules. The big western markets at St. Louis and Kansas have none for sale.

Some southerners are danger in this heavy draft of mules from the south. Many counties are farmed largely by negroes and every negro who has a mule has offered it for sale. It is feared that next year's crops will suffer for lack of mules to work the fields.

ENNIS ARRESTED AGAIN

Daughter Comes to Rescue of Aged Indiana Lawyer.

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—Alfred Ennis, the aged Indiana lawyer who was arrested on a separation suit and freed Saturday on a bond of $1,000 furnished by his daughter, Mrs. George H. Lorimer, wife of the editor of the Saturday Evening Post, was rearrested on an alleged hotel bill of $38.84. Mrs. Lorimer also furnished bond in this case.

Mr. Eastwood stated last night that the "haul" which the robbers would have made had they been successful in their efforts, would not have been particularly large. Just what amount of money was in the safe, except receipts of Saturday night, he would not say. This is the second time within three years that Mr. Eastwood has discovered robbers in his store, both attempted burglaries taking place on Sunday nights about the same time of the evening.

E. C. BROWN DIES.

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 7.—Edwin C. Brown, a long time prominent railroad official who rose from baggageman on the Chicago & North-western railroad to general superintendent of the Michigan Central railroad and assistant to Pres't Henry B. Ledyard of that company, died here Saturday.

SHE'S HERE TODAY—THE MYSTIC GIRL DETECTIVE.

I am ZUDORA—

the mystic girl detective you've heard so much about. I'm just eighteen. By some stroke of fortune I have been endowed with supernatural powers of deduction, hypnotism and scientific analysis. I've come here to show you, in motion pictures, 20 episodes of my life—20 baffling mysteries. These episodes are full of thrills and excitement. They have been idealized by Daniel Carson Goodman and Harold MacGrath—two of America's foremost authors. They depict many of the tense situations into which a young American girl may fall. They illustrate the strength and daring of girlhood when opposed by powerful forces. You are invited to see these baffling, scientific and instructive motion picture episodes of my life. I am at the Auditorium Today.
